Approximately 20,000,000 marks was ordered to be saved in 1954. The sum of the Mark Administration of the Ministry of Finance. As this total included a sum of 5,000,000 marks to be saved in the Mark Administration of the Ministry of Finance, the Mark Administration was to effect economies to the sum of 3,300,000 marks, and the Main Administration 1,000,000 marks.

2. The savings should be achieved by raising the standard quotas, by the dismissal of administrative personnel, by better utilization of mechanical equipment. The date of 21 February 1955 was the deadline at which all establishments and authorities had to submit their suggestions. The general opinion was that these strict measures of economy for savings were required by the establishment of armed forces.
